spring or early sammer, can be easily and quickly altered by taking what is known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. One will also buttly note a changed feeling within its hours after beginning to take the Restorative. The bowels get sluggish in the winter-time, the circulation of ten slows up, the kidneys are inactive and even the Heart in many cases grows decidedly weaker. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is recognized everywhere as genuine tonic to these vital organs, it builds up and strengthens the worn out weakened acryes; it sharpens the failing appetite, and universally aids digestion. It always quickly brings renewed strength, life, vigor, and ambition. Try it and be conxinced. Sold by All Dealers.

U. S. Officials Alleged to Have Plotted to Get Leve Letters.

LOEB'S NAME MENTIONED

Sensational Statement Signed By J. Martin Miller, a Newspaper Man, Read In Court During Suit Against

ment officials at Washington are alleged to have conspired to obtain pos-session of love letters said to have been written by United States Sena ter Thomas C. Platt to Miss Mae C Wood, in a signed statement introduced as evidence during the hearing in Miss Wood's suit for divorce against the senator. The statement, which was intro duced after the court had denied a motion by counsel for Senator Platt to dismiss the complaint, bears what purports to be the signature of J. Marwhile she did not see the signature that it was genuins. The statement was prepared by Mr. Miller at her re-quest, she testified. It declared that Miller was asked by "high government officials in Washington and New York to get possession of Senator Platt's love letters;" that the papers when obtained were not to be given to Senator Platt, but were to be turned over to "Mr. Loeb in Washington;" and that when the plan to get possession of the original papers failed, a scandal first assistant postmaster general started the ball rolling by getting a New York newspaper to print the article as it first appeared," says the statement, which concludes: "I was gotten into the conspiracy by powerful officials whom I dare not to displease from a newspaper or po-litical standpoint. I consulted Mr. Howe, Senator Platt's secretary, frequently, and acted at all times under the direction of Loch and Platt." Former Postmaster General Robert
